The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[illegible] Year.] THURSDAY, April 28, 1763. [Nº. 938.]

ONE of our Botaniſts has remarked, that the Froſt has penetrated the Ground deeper this Winter than in 1740. He found his Garden then frozen [illegible] Inches and 8 Lines deep; whereas it is at preſent frozen upwards of 24 Inches deep, which is attributed in a great Meaſure to the Want of Snow.

Cadiz, Dec. 24. It is ſaid by ſome People, that our Court has refuſed to purchaſe the Ships of War that were taken at the Havannah; and that the [illegible] we ſhall ſend to London will be charged with this Commiſſion, when thoſe Ships come to Europe.

Paris, Jan. 21. Melancholy Accidents happen every Day in this City from the Froſt. The Seine is no ſooner cleared of Ice, than it is again froze over. A young Gentleman of Fortune in croſſing the River on the Ice, by Way of Bravado, fell in, and was drowned; upon which his Footman, who he ordered to follow him, prudently turned back. The Arrival of all the [illegible] is retarded by the Badneſs of the Roads. Nobody gains by the hard Weather but the Wood Merchants who ſupply us with Firing.

We learn from Avignon, that the Rhone is froze over in ſeveral Parts; and that, if the Froſt continues, both in that Country and in Provence the Olive and other Trees will ſuffer ſeverely.

L O N D O N, Dec. 7.

A few Days ſince died at Holt in Norfolk, aged 75, one Robert Smith, who for near 34 Years rode Poſt from that Place to Thetford, (which is 26 meaſured Miles) ſix Days in every Week, and never miſſed but one Day in that long Period till he left off about Twelve Days before his Death. It is remarkable he always rid one Pace, and ſet out at ſuch an Hour, and returned at the ſame ſtated Time, which Practice he never once deviated from. [In the Whole above 450,000 Miles, which would extend about 19 Times round the Globe.]

A ſhort Time ago, one John Pilkington, a Scotch Sailor, got upon the Tower of Boſton Church in Lincolnſhire, which is reckoned the higheſt and fineſt Tower Steeple in England; on the Top of it there are eight Vanes or Weather Cocks, all which he went round, and coming to the laſt, to ſhew his Courage, went round that twice, but the Vane giving Way, he fell down and broke his Neck.

Dec. 17. It is ſaid that about 100 Ships of War will be kept in Commiſſion at their lower Complement of Men, and that they will be in various Stations, to ſee the Treaty [illegible] concluded ſtrictly and literally adhered to.

Yeſterday a Wager of a Thouſand Pounds againſt Fifty, laid ſome Time ago by two Gentlemen of Note in the City, was determined and paid. The Fact in Diſpute was, whether the Preliminaries were ſigned the 2d or 3d of November. He who betted 1000 l. inſiſted for the 3d, and was ſo poſitive as to lay againſt 50; but the Matter being proved againſt him, he has generouſly paid. It is probable his Poſitiveneſs in this Wager, aroſe from his Correſpondent's wrong Information by Twelve Hours: The Plenipotentiaries, as well as we can recollect, did agree about all the Preliminaries the 2d of November, at Night, over a Bottle, but did not ſign them till the next Morning.

Jan. 4. On Friday ſome Gentlemen, dining at a Houſe near Bagſhot Heath, tried the following Experiment, to ſhew the Intenſeneſs of the Froſt: They put a Glaſs of Water on a Table in the Bowling Green, and in ſix Minutes it was froze over ſo hard as to bear five Shillings put on it, one after the other. They then tried a Glaſs of Red Port, and a Glaſs of Brandy, when the Wine was froze over in two Hours, and the Brandy in [illegible] both with hard Ice.—It has not froze ſo hard ſince 1739.

They write from Florence, that at Poſty of Shirri, on [illegible], happening to call at the New [illegible], and [illegible] the Innkeeper's [illegible] out, in a great Fright, "It was not I that killed "the Traveller, but my Father, who threw him into the Well, after taking his Money." The Father, Son, and all the Servants, were immediately ſeized, and carried to Goal.

They write from Paris, that a young Woman having accuſed her Lady, of attempting, in Concert with a Man Servant, to poiſon her Huſband; and that Charge being groundleſs, the Girl was burnt Alive.

Jan. 6. Letters from Liſbon, of the 22d of laſt Month, ſay, that the King of Portugal had ordered our King's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament to be [illegible], and publickly ſold through his whole Kingdom.

Jan. 11. The [illegible] Daughter of the Empreſs Queen, named Jane Gabrielle, died at Vienna the 22d paſt, aged 12 Years and 10 Months.

We hear from Portugal, that every Officer employed in the Detachment of 300 Engliſh Troops, the 6th of October laſt, in croſſing the Tagus at Night, under the Command of Col. Lee, and attacking 1500 Spaniards, with an Intrepidity not to be equalled but by Britons, killing every Man of their Advanced Guards, taking Poſſeſſion of their Camp, ſpiking their Cannon, (bringing a conſiderable Body of Mules and Horſes over the River to their own Camp before Day-Light) had the Diſtinction [illegible] receive in Writing the particular Thanks of Count La Lippe; and that Lieutenant Woodford Rice, of the Royal Volunteers, has been preferred with a Company of Portugueſe Grenadiers, with an Indulgence to keep his Lieutenancy in the Royal Volunteers, and with full Rank of Captain in both Services, for his gallant Behaviour in that Action.

Jan. 20. A Letter from Rome, dated Dec. 29, ſays, "We had a great deal of Snow here in the Night between the 27th and 28th. The Wind alſo hath been very violent. It hath likewiſe frozen to ſuch a Degree, that all our public Fountains are ſtopped. A very extraordinary Event, in as much as in the Memory of Man the Winters of them have always been, at leaſt, only of a gentle Cold. It is feared, that our Olive, our Orange and Citron Trees, will be frozen to the very Heart."

Wedneſday Evening the Gentlemen belonging to the Lodge of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS, held at the Jeruſalem Tavern, Clerkenwell, raiſed a genteel Collection for the Relief of Indigent Perſons at this Seaſon, and each Member is to recommend a proper Object.

It is ſaid the King of Portugal has propoſed to pay an annual Subſidy to our Crown for keeping up a Number of Troops, to be always in Readineſs to embark for the Defence of that Kingdom.

We hear that Mr. Mooney, a Gentleman Farmer in Ireland, hath made ſome important Diſcoveries towards finding out the Longitude, which have been laid before the Lords of the Admiralty, who, it is ſaid, have referred the ſame to the Earl of Macclesfield and Dr. Bliſs.

Feb. 1. The Froſt has done very great Damage to both Shores of the River Medway, from the new Baſon downward to the Nore; and, beſides ſtopping the Navigation, has damaged ſeveral of his Majeſty's Ships moored there.

Near Woolwich, the Bodies of two Men have lain on the Ice on the River for ſeveral Days, no Perſons being able to get near them.

Another melancholy Sight, near the ſame Place, is that of a Boy in a Boat, which is ſeen driving up and down among the Ice every Tide.

February 10. It is ſaid the eight Waggons which came to the Bank on Monday, contained 10 Tons of Silver. It is hoped a large Quantity of this will be coined into Money, for the Sake of thoſe concerned in retale Trade, as the Want of it is much felt by all of them.

Monday 73 Cwt. of Gum Seneca was entered for Holland, from whence, a few Years ago, we uſed to purchaſe it at 12 l. per Cwt.

The Spaniſh Court is giving great Encouragement to the Propoſals of their Merchants, for ſettling and cultivating their Part of the Iſland of Domingo; and it is ſaid the Spaniſh Garriſon and Negroes in Florida, will be tranſported thither.

Yeſterday Morning early arrived a Courier from Leipzig, with an Account (as it is ſaid) that the Preliminary Articles were ſigned between the Empreſs Queen and the King of Pruſſia.

By Letters from Madrid we are told, that an Order was gone to Cadiz for the Sailing of an Expreſs Veſſel to St. Auguſtine, with Orders for the Governor and his Garriſon to hold themſelves in Readineſs to embark for St. Domingo.

As the Ceſſation of Hoſtilities takes Place in the Weſt-Indies on the 22d Inſtant, no more Convoys will ſail for the Sugar Iſlands.

Feb. 12. Private Letters from Madrid inform us, that his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Act of Ceſſion, in Reſpect to the Countries Weſtward of the Miſſiſippi, is expected, and will make the Concluſion of the Definitive Treaty highly acceptable.

It was ſaid Yeſterday, that the Definitive Treaty between Great-Britain, France, and Spain, was actually ſigned.

W. ſhipt a large Sea, which cleared the Deck, carried both Maſts by the Board, ſtove the Boat to Pieces, and damaged the Veſſel, ſo that ſhe made conſiderable Water: At Six the next Morning ſhe fortunately fell in with the Sloop Nancy, Capt. Wright, from Guadaloupe, bound to this Port, and in the Evening Capt. Trotter, with his People, were all taken on board the Nancy, and arrived here laſt Tueſday. There were 4 Horſes, valued at 1200l.
